

Livable Lights Weekly Digest

by Angela Rausch on July 18, 2025

Last week I got the privilege of traveling to Japan. I have one word, transit. The mass transit system was fast, clean, efficient and plentiful. We used public transportation on our entire trip, with one taxi ride. The picture on the left is a car lift parking system. The Japanese have fully invested and committed to making public transportation good. Let's explore this commitment.

Save the date, our next social will be coupled with an event by Catalyze SV on July 30, Wednesday at 5:30P, titled, Why Is There So Much Community Opposition to Housing?
